

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, May 24 1704

From the Paris Gazette, dated May 10.

Naples, April 12.

THE Duke of Noia of the House of Caraffa, and the Prince of Brigiano, who were put under Confinement by Order of the Council, have been try'd and acquitted of the Crimes against the Government which were imputed to them; and their Innocence was made out so clearly, that the Council, thought themselves oblig'd to desire the Viceroy to write to the King of Spain, to represent to his Majesty that they conceiv'd it to be a piece of Justice owing to those 2 Noblemen, and that at the same time it would be for his Majesty's Service, to give them publick Marks of his Favour. The latter is already put into Possession of the Government of the Castle of Bari, which by a peculiar Privilege is an Office enjoy'd by his Family hereditarily. On the News that his Catholick Majesty is gone into the Field to open the Campaign, we have begun to make publick Prayers for his good Success. Letters from Sicily inform us, that a very large Corsair of Barbary being driven by a Tempest ran ashore near Trapani, all the Men on board were seiz'd and made Slaves.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated May 22.

Rome, May 3. The 1st being Ascension-day, the Pope, according to Custom, held a publick Chappel in the Church of St. John Lateran. After which his Holiness went up to the Gallery of the said Church, and gave his Benediction to a great Crowd of People, among which was the Queen Dowager of Poland. That day, he din'd in the Quirinal Palace; and passing thither through the Street in which Cardinal Nerli lives, he stop'd at his Palace Gate, and sent a Prelate to compliment him on the Recovery of his Health; And his Eminency return'd his Holiness Thanks by the chief Officer of his Household. The Express sent by the Pope to his Nuncio in Poland, with Orders to solicit the Enlargement of the two Princes James and Constantine Sobieski, return'd hither yesterday: But 'tis said he has not brought back a favourable Answer, and that the King of Poland refuses to release them, unless the Emperor will be answerable for their future Conduct. The Duke d'Uzeda came hither the 4th from Frascati to celebrate the Festival of St. Philip whose Name the King his Master bears; and upon that Occasion he gave a magnificent Entertainment to a great Number of Prelates and Persons of Quality: After which he return'd to Frascati; And Cardinal Fourbin who came from Albano to be present at that Entertainment, went back the next day, for the Benefit of the Air of that Place, being still in a bad State of Health. The next day the Count de Lamberg, the Emperor's Ambassador, return'd hither from Nettuno, and immediately sent an Express to the Imperialists encamp'd at Ostiglia, upon a Complaint made to him by the Pope of a Skirmish that happen'd a few days ago between some of our Dragoons that are quarter'd in that Province, and a Party of Imperial Horse. A Proclamation is publish'd, promising 1000 Crowns Reward to him who shall deliver alive into the Hands of Justice one of the Spanish Ambassador's Domesticks, who lately kill'd a Guardian of a Convent in one of the Inns of this City, or 500. Crowns to the Person who shall kill him and bring his Head. The Cardinal de Fourbin having represented to the Pope, that if he did not send a sufficient Number of Troops into Avignon and the Territory depending on that Town, the King of France would be oblig'd to send a Detachment of his Troops thither, to oppose the Incursions of the Camisars; a Congregation was held, in which it was resolv'd to send Orders to the Nuncio at Paris to represent to his most Christian Majesty, that the Pope does not think it necessary at present to be at the Expence of putting a Garrison into Avignon; because he is satisfied that Place and the Neighbourhood thereof is in no great Danger from the Camisars; and to desire him not to think of putting a Garrison of his own into that Place without Necessity and without his Holiness's Consent.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated May 29.

Rome, May 10. The Pope expresses extreme concern for the Troubles of Poland, and has publish'd a Plenary Indulgence or Jubilee, in favour of all those who shall repair to the Church of St. Stanislaus Protector of Poland, and worship the Host which is to stand expos'd on the high Altar there, and offer up Prayers for the Peace of that Kingdom. And the 7th being the Festival of that Saint, his Holiness went to the said Church to open the Jubilee and said Mass himself, accompanied by several Cardinals and other Prelates; the Queen Dowager of Poland was there likewise; and frequent Processions have been since made to the same Church. The Pope being inform'd, that the French intend to demolish the Fortifications of Bersello, which belongs to the Duke of Modena, has sent Order to his Nuncio at Paris to represent to his most Christian Majesty, that he promis'd him not to demolish the Fortifications of that Place, and that he expects he will keep his Word. The last Letters that came hither from Spain for the Duke d'Uzeda Ambassador of that Crown, and to several private Spaniards, were discover'd to have been open'd in France; which has made the Duke very uneasy and occasion'd great murmuring among those of that Nation.

From the Paris Gazette a la Main, dated May 19.

Paris, May 19. The 17th Monsieur de St. Pierre Aide du Camp to the Marshal de Villars, brought Letters to the Court at Marli, giving an Account, that Cavalier one of the chief Leaders of the Camisars, having desir'd to speak with Monsieur de la Lande, the latter went to the Place appointed, (taking Cavalier's Parole of Honour for his safe Return) and found the Camisars, both Horse and Foot, under Arms, which they presented as he pass'd by them, to do him the Honour due to a Lieutenant General. The Result of this Interview is said to be this; Cavalier demanded a full Pardon for himself, for Roland another of their Leaders, and for 7 or 800 of their Comrades. He likewise demanded Passports for himself and them to go out of the Kingdom: That all others of their Party should have liberty to go out of the Kingdom likewise. And lastly, that those of their Party that are in Prison, may be pardon'd and set at Liberty.

Liberty. 'Tis said the Court will grant their Demands, to put an End to this Intestine War, and that the King's Troops now in that Country may be better employ'd elsewhere.

From the Paris Gazette a la Main, dated May 24.

Paris, May 24. We have Advice that the Duke of Vendome will besiege Vercell, tho' the Duke of Savoy has put 7 Battallions into it. The Duke of Feuillade has written to the King, that all his Preparations are ready for executing his Majesty's Commands, whether to besiege Montmeillan, Suza, or Nice; 'tis said 12 or 15 Battallions will be sent to him from Languedoc, with 3 or 4 Regiments of Horse and Dragoons. The King has sent his last Orders to the M^{de} Villars to conclude the Accomodation with the Camisars; they are to have Passports to go out of the Kingdom, part by the way of Geneva, and part to the Rhine and so into Germany; and will be permitted to sell what they have, or to leave a Power to others to dispose of their Effects for them after they are gone. But the last Letters say, the chief of them are unwilling to leave the Kingdom, and demand only a Pardon and to be admitted to Serve in the King's Armies.

London, May 24.

Yesterday Stocks were as follows, Bank 126 a 5 & 3 qrs. New Comp. 249 & a half. Shares 30 & 3 qrs. Old Comp. 129 & 1 qr. Million Bank 88 & a half a 1 qr. Sword Blades 84 & a half. African 20 & 3 qrs.

In the first Page of yesterday's Courant, the 4th Line from the bottom of the 2d Column, for Concordia read Mirandola. In the 2d Page the 10th Line from the bottom of the 1st Column, for to this side of Villingen, read to the Left of Villingen.

The last time of Acting it this Season.

AT the Theatre Royal in Drury-Lane, on Thursday next being the 25th of May, will be presented a Comedy call'd, The Constant Couple, or, A Trip to the Jubilee. With several Entertainments of Singing by Mr. Leveridge, particularly a Song compos'd by the late Mr. Henry Purcell, beginning, From Rosy Bowers, &c. And Dancing by the Famous Monsieur du Ruel, Monsieur Cherrier, and the Devonshire Girl. And other Entertainments which will be express'd in the Bills. The Part of Alderman Smuggler to be perform'd by Mr. Johnson, For his own Benefit.

Several fine young Mares and Geldings, fit for Coach and Saddle, are brought to Town to be Sold at the Bell and Nags-head in Grub-street.

Left in a Coffee-house in Miter-Court in the Temple yesterday the 23d instant, a Silver Tobacco-Box with a Perpetual Almanack engraved on each side, and on the inner part of the Lid, Ex dono Ric^{ti} Pearce. Whoever brings it to Mr. Brown's Coffee-house in Miter-Court shall have 10 s. Reward.

The Water-works of the late most Ingenious and Famous Mr. Winstanley, are now open'd, and will be shown for his Widow, by his old Servants. And all Persons that please to see them, are desired to be at the House between Four and Five of the Clock at the furthest and they will not loose time in staying.

Whereas there was lost on Saturday the 20th inst. between Clare-Market and the New Play-House in Little-Lincolns-Inn-Fields, a Collecting Book for the Window-Lights in Holloway-Ward Clare-Market, James Philbey and Tho. Night Collectors. Whoever brings the said Book to James Philbey a Baker in Clare-street, Clare-Market, shall have 5 s. Reward. Note, It's of no use to any but the Owner.

A Negro Boy about 14 Years of Age, newly recover'd of the Small Pox, with a sad-colour'd Eustian Frock, brass Buttons, red Waistcoat and Breeches, gray Stockings, a Cloth Hat edg'd with white, call'd by the Name of Jack, Run away from his Master Sir John Mitchell at the two Blue Posts in King-street Bristol, on Thursday the 18th inst. Whoever gives notice of him so as he may be brought to his Master at Bristol, or to Ralph Smith at the Bible under the Royal Exchange Cornhill, London, shall have a Guinea Reward and reasonable Charges.

This present Wednesday and the days following, in the lower Walk of Exeter-Exchange in the Strand, at Four a Clock in the Afternoon, will be continued the Sale by Auction of the Reverend Dr. Lake's Library, consisting of a curious Collection of Books in Divinity, Philosophy, Law, and History, in Greek, Latin and English, most of them curiously and neatly Bound in Cal's Leather, Gilt Back and titled. The Sale of the English Books will begin tomorrow. Catalogues sold at 6 d. by Mr. King at the Judge's Head in Westminster-Hall, Mr. Chapman in the Pall-mall, P. Varennet at Seneca's Head near Somerset-House in the Strand, R. Smith at the Angel and Bible without Temple-Bar, M. Wotton near the Middle-Temple-Gate, J. Keapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, S. Crouch at the corner of Pope's-head-Alley, Aesop's Fables, in English and Latin, interlineary, for the Benefit of those who not having a Master would learn either of these Tongues. With Sculptures. printed for A. and J. Churchill at the Black Swan in Pater-Noster-Row.

The Specifick Errhine for the Headach, a few Drops of which snuff'd up the Nose, eases the most violent Pains thereof in a moment, and that without Sneezing or endangering Cold, likewise of admirable effect in all Diseases of the Head whatsoever, particularly Apoplexies, comforts the Brain and Nerves, strengthens the Memory Sight, Hearing, recovers loss of Smelling, Tasting, &c. But in Headach, 'tis scarcely to be express'd the wonderful and instant Ease that it gives for no sooner is it snuff'd up the Nose but the Pain is gone, tho' before it was never so intolerable, and by continuing it, prevents its return, having cured old inveterate Headachs of many years standing when nothing else would do. Is to be had only at Mr. Evett's a Bookeller at the Green Dragon in St. Paul's Church-yard, Price 2 s. 6 d. the Bottle with Directions.

The Royal Essence for the Hair of the Head and Perriwigs, being the most delicate and charming Perfume in Nature, and the greatest Preserver of Hair in the World, for it keeps that of Perriwigs (a much longer time than usual) in the Curl, and fair Hair from fading or changing colour, makes the Hair of the Head grow thick, strengthens and confirms its Roots, and effectually prevents it from falling off or splitting at the ends, makes the Powder continue in all Hair longer than it possibly will, by the use of any other thing, by its incomparable Odour and Fragrancy it strengthens the Brain, revives the Spirits, quickens the Memory, and makes the Heart cheerful, never raises the Vapours in Ladies, &c. being wholly free from (and abundantly more delightful and pleasant than) Musk, Civet, &c. 'tis indeed an unparallel'd fine Scent for the Pocket, and perfumes Handkerchiefs, &c. excellently. To be had only at Mr. Allcroft's a Toyshop at the Bluecoat Boy by Popes-head-Alley against the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, seal'd up, at 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle with Directions.

The Golden Snuff, which has been found so Beneficial against the Headach, Drowiness, delfness of Hearing, Colds in the Head, and Humours in the Eyes, having been formerly sold at Jacob's Coffee-house in Threadneedle-street, is now by the Author's order, only sold at Mason's Coffee-house in Bartholomew-lane near the Royal Exchange, Price 6 d. a Paper seal'd up with Directions. Where any Person in City or Country may now be furnish'd with what quantity they please, good Allowance being made to those who will sell it again. At the same place is still to be had the Balsam of Cathay, so much approved of for giving present ease to Gouty and Rheumatick Pains. Price 2 s. 6 d. the Box with Directions. It never decays.

To morrow will be publish'd,

Discourses concerning Government by Algernon Sidney, Son to Robert Earl of Leicester, and Ambassador from the Commonwealth of England to Charles Gustavus King of Sweden. Publish'd from an Original Manuscript. The Second Edition carefully corrected. To which is added a Copy of the Paper he deliver'd to the Sheriffs immediately before his Death, and an Alphabetical Table, with his Effigies done from an Original.

There is now publish'd, Mr. Serjeant Lutwyche's Book, Entitul'd,

Un Livre des Encries: Contenant auxi un REPERTOIRE des Resolutions del Court sur divers Exceptions Prises as Pleadings, & sur autres Matters en Ley, surdant (pur la plupart) en le Court de Common Bank, entre le 34 An del Roy Charles le 2d. & le 2 An del Raigne de la present Majesty, la Raigne Anne. Et ascuns Observations sur divers des les Presidents, cybien ceux qu'eux ne fueront unques debate en Court, com sur plusieurs des les autres. Ovesque deux Tables, l'un de les nommes des Cases, & l'autre des Matters contenues en yeux. Alloué & approuve per le Seignior Keeper & per tout les Trus-Reverends Judges de la Ley. In 2 Vol. Fol. Printed for C. Harper at the Flower-de-Luce, and Alexander Bosville at the Dial and Bible, both against St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street.

This day is publish'd,

A Discourse concerning the Nature, Advantage and Improvement of Trade, with some Considerations why the Charges of the Poor do and will Increase. By P. Paxton, M. D. In svo. Price 1 s. Printed for Richard Wilkin, at the King's Head in St. Paul's Church-yard.

This day is Published.

A Just and Impartial Character of the Clergy of the Church of England, occasion'd by Her Majesty's most Gracious Bounty to them, in giving Her whole Revenue of First-Fruits and Tithes for the Augmentation of Poor Livings. Printed for A. Baldwin in Warwick-Lane.

ADVERTISEMENT

Gallienus Redivivus: Or, Murther will out, &c. being a true Account of the De-Witting of Glencoe Gaffney, &c. Price 6 d. Sold by the Book-sellers.

Topica Sacra: Or, Spiritual Logick: Some brief Helps to Faith, Meditation, Prayer, Comfort, and Holiness. By Thomas Harrison, D. D. Sold by J. Robinson at the Golden Lion in St. Paul's Church-yard.

Mechanick Exercises, or the Doctrine of Handi-works applied to the Arts of Smithing, Joinery, Carpentry, Turning and Bricklayery. To which is added, Mechanick Dialling, shewing how to draw a true Sun-Dial on any given Plane however situated, only with the help of a straight Ruler and a pair of Compasses, and without any Arithmetical Calculation. By Joseph Moxon F. R. S. price 6 s.

Military Architecture: or, The Art of Fortification, comprehending all that relates to the Plans of places, to Typographical Maps, to the Descriptions of Sieges, and all warlike Instruments used in Attacking and Defending Towns Belieged, to Battles, Marches of Armies, and Incampments, &c. price 1 s. Both printed for T. Leigh and D. Midwinter at the Rose and Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard.

An Abridgment of the Latin Grammar in English, useful for younger Boys better understanding the Latin Tongue. price 6 d. Printed for John Wyat at the Rose in St. Paul's Church-yard.

LONDON Printed, and Sold by Sam. Buckley at the Dolphin in Little-Brittain.